1. FEES AND CHARGES

1. Joining fee shall be the amount determined by the management committee and ratified at the following general meeting.
2. Annual membership subscription for the period 1st January to 31st December shall be the amount determined by the management committee and ratified at the following general meeting.
3. Continuing members must pay the full year's membership subscription and should renew their membership by 31st December.
4. New members
 - (a) Anyone wishing to become a member must complete a Membership Application Form which is available from the secretary or can be downloaded from the association's website.
 - (b) New members joining before 30th June each year shall pay the joining fee and the full annual membership subscription.
 - (c) New members joining between 1st July and 31st October each year shall pay the joining fee and half the full annual membership subscription.
 - (d) New members joining after 31st October shall pay the joining fee and full annual membership subscription which will give them membership until the end of the following year.

5. Unfinancial Members

Members who have not renewed their membership will be sent a reminder. Should membership not be renewed by 30th April, the membership will be cancelled and the name deleted from the financial members list.

6. Other Charges

- (a) A charge may be made for social activities or trips. The charges should be set to cover the costs related to the particular activity or trip but, in special cases, the management committee may determine to provide a subsidy towards the cost of an activity or trip. The charge should be advised on the monthly newsletter and is payable to the social coordinator before the activity or trip. When U3A has paid for, or is committed to pay for, an activity or trip or part thereof, there will be no refunds to members for cancellations.

(b) Activity groups that use materials or venues that charge for their use should advise those charges before members enrol in these groups. The activities manager should be advised of the charge and it should be shown on the activities sheet.

2. AUSTRALIAN BUSINESS NUMBER

1. The U3A Rockhampton and District Inc. Australian Business Number as recorded on the Australian Business Register is 83 907 668 103.
2. The current president of U3A Rockhampton and District Inc. shall be the contact person on the Australian Business Register.
3. In the case of a change of president, the outgoing president must update the contact details on the Australian Business Register.

3. FINANCES

1. Financial Institution

The funds of the association must be kept in an account or accounts in the name of the association in a financial institution decided by the management committee.

2. Financial Management

- (a) All financial transactions are to be recorded using a suitable account keeping computer program.
- (b) Receipts are to be issued for all monies received.
- (c) All monies received should be banked as soon as possible after receipt.
- (d) The treasurer has authority to pay accounts when due, and such payments are to be ratified at the next management committee meeting.

3. Petty Cash and Change

- (a) The secretary has $100.00 petty cash for postage, etc. The secretary's petty cash must be kept on the imprest system.
- (b) The treasurer and social coordinator will each have $100 for change.

4. Signatories

- (a) All electronic funds transfers must be authorized by two people. Normally, the president and the treasurer authorize transactions. In the absence of either the president or the treasurer, the secretary will be the second authorizer of transactions.

(b) Cheques must be signed by any 2 of the following—

- (i) the president;
- (ii) the secretary;
- (iii) the treasurer;

4. MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The management committee shall consist of: president, vice-president/health and safety officer, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer, activities manager, guest speaker coordinator, social coordinator, publicity officer, journal editor, volunteers' coordinator, website coordinator and the immediate past president (for 1 year after their term as president, provided they are willing to accept the position).
2. The management committee should ensure that a position description is made available to all members, or prospective members, of the management committee. A copy of all position descriptions is held by the assistant secretary.
3. While all management committee positions will be declared vacant at each annual general meeting, members may be renominated for that management committee position.
4. A member should be expected to serve in the same management committee position for only 3 consecutive years. Should a member have served in the same management committee position for 3 years and a candidate for that position cannot be found, a motion at a general meeting may give approval for that members to serve a further year in that position.
5. A member should not serve for more than three 3-year terms on the management committee.
6. Management Committee Meetings
 - (a) A management committee meeting will be held prior to each general meeting unless circumstances have resulted in the management committee meeting being unavoidably postponed or adjourned to a date after the general meeting. The meetings will be held at a location, on a day and at the commencement time determined by the management committee and advised to members.

- (b) The management committee will determine the routine administration of the association at this meeting.
- (c) All financial transactions are to be approved by this meeting.
- (d) Reports, recommendations and proposals are to be submitted to the committee and where necessary details taken to a general meeting for formal approval by the association.

5. GENERAL MEETINGS

1. Ordinary General Meetings

- (a) General meetings of the association will be held on the first Monday of each month (except January) at a time and venue decided by the management committee.
- (b) General meetings are to keep members informed of decisions of the management committee as they apply to the regular activities in which members could be involved. The following management committee members should report to the general meetings as required: president, secretary, treasurer, activities manager, social coordinator, guest speaker coordinator, publicity officer, journal editor, and website coordinator.
- (c) A record of attendance at each general meeting is to be kept in a manner determined by the management committee.
- (d) The following volunteer positions, which may be varied by the management committee, are required to provide for the efficient running of general meetings:
 - (i) 3 members to maintain the record of attendance sheets and to distribute the monthly newsletter;
 - (ii) 2 members to welcome visitors and new members;
 - (iii) 2 members to sell tickets in the raffle; and
 - (iv) 3 members to assist with morning teas.
- (e) Activities Expo will be held on the first Monday in February each year. The Activities Expo will commence immediately after the February general meeting and will provide an opportunity for the various activity groups to showcase what they do and to sign on members who wish to participate in that activity. The Expo will be publicised as widely as possible to encourage members of the public to attend to see what U3A has to offer. Membership Application Forms will be available for any persons wishing to join the association.

- (f) All other general meetings during the year are to include a guest speaker.
- (g) Morning tea is to be made available for members following the business section of the meeting followed by the guest speaker.

2. The annual general meeting will be conducted in March.

6. ACTIVITY GROUPS

1. Any member with an expertise or interest may make a request to the management committee to form an activity group.
2. An activity group may operate for members only or in conjunction with another organisation, when in those circumstances it shall be known as a third party provided activity.
3. The management committee shall approve the formation of an activity group provided-
 - (a) a suitable coordinator is willing to take responsibility to lead the group;
 - (b) sufficient interest is shown by members to make the group viable;
 - (c) a suitable venue is available as a meeting place for the group;
 - (d) costs to members for participation are known and reasonable; and
 - (e) the coordinator attends health and safety training for risk assessment and incident/accident investigation prior to the committee approving the new activity.
4. Activity group coordinators will be supplied with a coordinators folder. The folder will contain U3A Rockhampton Inc's Health and Safety Policy, attendance records, approved Risk Assessment and Covid Safe Plan, Next of Kin details, Guidelines for Coordinators, blank membership applications and blank health and safety forms. The folder may also contain Certificates of currency for insurance and conditions of hire of venue if necessary.
5. The coordinator should keep an accurate record of each member's attendance at each group meeting, including times of arrival and departure. Record sheets are to be sent to the assistant secretary for filing.

7. PLANNING

Future planning is the responsibility of the management committee. The management committee should take responsibility for the changing of meeting dates and/or venues should the need arise, e.g., unavailability of venue, public holidays.

8. PUBLISHING

1. A journal, the Quarterly Flyer, shall be produced by the journal editor for distribution to members at the March, June, September and December general meetings. The journal will be distributed electronically to members who have provided an email address. Printed copies are to be taken to a general meeting for collection by those on the mailing list. Any uncollected copies will be mailed. The journal shall contain an opening report from the president, a report from CQU Vice Chancellor, reports from management committee members, reports from activity coordinators, stories, poems, photographs and artwork submitted by members, and a current activities sheet.

2. A newsletter is to be produced by the assistant secretary for distribution to members at each general meeting and made available to cooperating organisations. The information contained therein should include – date, time and guest speaker for the present meeting and next meeting; details of the next two social/educational outings/trips; details provided by coordinators of activity groups when requested; and any information requested by the management committee. Minutes of the previous general meeting are to be printed on the back of the newsletter.

3. Website – A site on the World Wide Web is to be maintained by a web coordinator in conjunction with the management committee. The site should contain details of the association's contacts, functions and activities, and any other information the management committee decides.

9. PUBLICITY

The publicity officer will arrange for information to be given to the media regarding meetings, activity groups and any special events.

10. INSURANCE

The management committee must ensure:

(a) that the association takes out Public and Products Liability insurance, Management Liability insurance, Voluntary Workers Accident insurance, Property insurance and any other insurance the management committee considers necessary; and

(b) that such insurance cover is current at all times.

11. SAFETY MANAGEMENT

Every member of U3A Rockhampton and District Inc. must understand and accept their responsibilities for health and safety and must comply with any reasonable health and safety instructions. The management committee and activity coordinators must attend annual health and safety training as outlined in Health and Safety Policy and Procedures.
