

PATTY BEECHAM

Author Patty Beecham is a well known former Rockhampton resident and is a regular contributor to the Rockhampton Remembers Facebook page.

Patty will visit Rockhampton on 2nd November to launch her latest book about growing up in Rockhampton, and will present a workshop for fellow writers and poets, organised by U3A Rockhampton and District.

"This is my story of an innocent childhood in a fractured family as we learn to live with each other, only to be torn apart after a tragic accident."

WRITING YOUR OWN MEMOIR

Workshop

With Patty Beecham

1-3pm

Wednesday 2nd November

at Rockhampton
Baptist Tabernacle

Norman Road, Norman Gardens

Cost: $15

(includes afternoon tea)

PHONE 07 4926 7499

Bookings and payment required by Wednesday, 26th October

Presented by

Rockhampton & District Inc.

With grateful thanks for support from Rockhampton Regional Council and Rockhampton Baptist Tabernacle

Patty's latest book...

'Growing up, Rocky'

will be launched

3:30-5pm

Following the workshop